DREAMS AND DAYDREAMS

This is your subconscious speaking to you, listen up!

Ask yourself:

What are the themes in your dreams?

Who's in it?

What are you doing?

Where are you located?

What patterns do you see?

SELF-DISCOVERY

Which aspects of your personality test results stuck with you the most?

Of the various points laid out, which elements are the ones you'd like to pursue further to impact the people around you?

What makes your eyes light up?

EXPERIENCES AND VALUES:

Which 3 experiences were the most life-defining moments for you?

Which experiences would you be happy to see others be able to enjoy?

Which experiences would you want to protect others from?

If you had to highlight 5 of your values based on your experiences, what would they be?

YOUR VISION

Is it coming together?

Are the dots connecting into a cohesive statement?

Ask yourself some additional questions:

- Who would be on the receiving end of your vision?
- What is the outcome of the vision?
- What talents, skills and resources of yours will be used could be included; how do you want them to benefit?
- How will you be remembered when your vision is successfully executed?

REMEMBER

While knowing the WHY is important,
the HOW is divine.

Dr. Ayat Mekki

Do you think you need to be in control of every outcome?
It's just not possible. That doesn't mean you should sit around expecting things to work out their own either!

When you know your why, you will do the work, and the how will figure itself out along the way. Be open and expectant, ready to receive and accept any opportunities that come your way that are in line with your vision.

Vision + Work = Satisfaction & Gratification

I APPRECIATE YOU!

It's such an honour for you to trust me on this journey. Knowing your vision is only part of the process to building & preserving wealth, which is our ultimate goal.

This is only the beginning of great things for you, and I look forward to watching it all unfold beautifully.

Lots of love,
Lydia
